KEY ENGLISH TEST (KET)

KET is a general proficiency examination at Level A2 in the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference. It is at Entry Level 2 in the UK National Qualifications Framework.

Further details of KET are given in the KET Handbook, and at www.cambridgeesol.org

For KET, there are three passing grades, Pass with Distinction*, Pass with Merit and Pass. Candidates who have not achieved a KET passing grade (Council of Europe Level A2), but have demonstrated ability at the level below this, are awarded a certificate stating Council of Europe Level A1.

A † symbol next to the grade indicates that the candidate was exempt from satisfying the full range of assessment objectives in the examination.

The Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference covers six levels of language proficiency. Research carried out by the Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE) shows what learners can typically do at each level. The table below gives examples of typical ability in each of the skill areas for Council of Europe Levels B1, A2 and A1.

Level B1	Listening and Speaking	Reading and Writing
Overall general ability	CAN understand straightforward instructions or public announcements.	CAN understand routine information and articles.
	CAN express opinions on abstract/cultural matters in a limited way or offer advice within a known area.	CAN write letters or make notes on familiar or predictable matters.
Level A2	Listening and Speaking	Reading and Writing
Overall general ability	CAN understand simple questions and instructions.	CAN understand straightforward information within a known area.
	CAN express simple opinions or requirements in a familiar context.	CAN complete forms and write short simple letters or postcards related to personal information.
Social & Leisure	CAN have short conversations with friends about interesting topics.	CAN understand short simple messages from people who share his/her interests, for example emails, postcards or short letters from pen-friends.
	CAN make simple plans with people, such as what to do, where to go, and when to meet.	CAN write a very simple personal letter, note or email, for example accepting or offering an invitation, thanking someone for something, apologising.
	CAN express likes and dislikes in familiar contexts using simple language.
School & Study	CAN understand basic instructions on class times, dates and room numbers.	CAN understand the general meaning of a simplified text book or story, reading very slowly.
	CAN ask the person to repeat what they said, when he/she does not understand something.	CAN write about his/her daily life in simple phrases and sentences, for example family, school, hobbies, holidays, likes and dislikes.
	CAN express simple opinions using expressions such as 'I don't agree'.
Level A1	Listening and Speaking	Reading and Writing
Overall general ability	CAN understand simple phone messages.	CAN understand basic notices, instructions or information.
	CAN take part in a basic factual conversation on a predictable topic.	CAN complete basic forms and write notes including times, dates and places.
